

LASTING POWERS OR ATTORNEY AND MENTAL INCAPACITY

What would happen at a future time I am not able to manage my financial affairs or provide my accommodation for future health and welfare.

You CAN appoint a person who you trust to manage your financial affairs and to ensure that your needs and wishes will be carried out even if you are unable to do so yourself by reason of mental incapacity.

To help YOU to do this, we can provide expert advice and help in drawing up a LASTING POWER OF ATTORNEY which will let you ensure that your financial and welfare concerns and future onset of disability over guarded agreement. All you need to DO is consult our Specialist Advisers listed below.

IF a relative or friend is not capable of managing his or her affairs by reason of mental incapacity and unfortunately not prepared for the situation by creating a Lasting Power of Attorney or its predecessor an Enduring Power of Attorney, we can provide specialist advice as to what action can and should be taken to prevent the financial and welfare requirements of the person with the incapacity.

Simeon Arnold, our Consultant, has been appointed by the Court of Protection on numerous occasions as the Court appointed Receiver and now Deputy for such persons.
